

A New Season of Teaching in Room 9 Begins January 17

In support of parents and caregivers during COVID disruptions, school closures, and sick days, a new season of Teaching in Room 9 kicks off Monday, January 17, on Nine PBS at 11:30 am, with all-new episodes for early learners.

The series broadcasts engaging, 30-minute lessons taught by teachers from Missouri and Illinois on Nine PBS, Monday through Friday. Lessons also stream on Nine PBS's YouTube channel, organized by grade level.

Prek-k | 11:30 am-12:30 pm
reading, math, related arts, and science

1st-3rd graders | 12:30-1:30
reading, math, and science

Lessons are guided by Missouri state standards and learning objectives that were created specifically for Teaching in Room 9.

Link to our other at-home learning resources here.

- Online Educator and Caregiver Toolkit: The learning toolkit streamlines all our resources for educators and caregivers into one easy-to-access place, making it easier to help kids learn and thrive.
- PBS KIDS: PBS KIDS shows run on our flagship channel (9.1 and corresponding cable and satellite channels) everyday through 5 pm. Nine PBS KIDS (9.2 and corresponding cable and satellite channels) airs curriculum-based kids programming 24/7.
- PBS LearningMedia: You will be amazed by all the educational content for distance learning this research-based, classroom-ready digital learning experience. There are more than 100,000 digital resources available through PBS LearningMedia for early learners, middle school, and high school.

ninepbs.org/learningtoolkit

Supported by

BANK OF AMERICA

James S. McDonnell Family Foundation

PERSHING CHARITABLE TRUST

SAINT LOUIS ART MUSEUM